OVERVIEW OF DISPLACEMENT STATE

Aj Jazirah

An estimated 364,158 internally displaced persons (IDPs) were hosted in Aj Jazirah as of 04 April 2024, while approximately 626,345 IDPs reportedly originated from Aj Jazirah. As clashes erupted in Khartoum at the start of the conflict, many individuals fled to neighbouring Aj Jazirah state given its proximity and relative security. Aj Jazirah also served as an operational base for various humanitarian actors throughout the conflict. However, clashes in Aj Jazirah since December 2023 triggered significant waves of displacement, both within Aj Jazirah and to neighbouring states. Many IDPs who were originally from Khartoum experienced secondary displacement. As a result, Aj Jazirah became the third most common state of origin among IDPs in Sudan as of 04 April 2024.

Gedaref

An estimated 471,547 IDPs were hosted in Gedaref as of 04 April 2024. While Gedaref was not a reported state of origin among IDPs, there was a consistent monthly increase in IDPs arriving in Gedaref throughout the year. Gedaref primarily hosted IDPs originating from the neighbouring state of Khartoum. Many IDPs who were hosted in Gedaref had experienced secondary displacement following the expansion of conflict into expansion of conflict into neighbouring Aj Jazirah state in December 2023.
